

J-1 Internship/training Opportunities

A Fast Food Restaurant has requested international applicants for 2010 to assist them as interns and trainees. Below is an outline of the experience the applicants can expect.

Program Contents

Visa Preparation: Applicants will prepare the documents needed for the acquisition of J-1 visa.

Insurance: Health insurance will be included as part of the program.

Transportation to and from Airport: Host will assist with transportation.

Transportation to and from site: Host will assist with transportation.

Housing: EDI will assist with information, but housing is the responsibility of the applicant.

The cost will be $300.00 per month approximately.

Program Information

Number of Positions Available: 5 Length: approximately 12 months.

Program Dates: Positions available from approximately March 15, 2010 through March 15, 2011

Pay Rate: $8 per hour (less State and Federal taxes and any other required deductions).

Number of Hours per Week:

Schedule: Participants will be having different shifts. Many shifts will be approximately 8 hours. Shifts and schedules may change during the course of the program.

Uniforms: Uniforms are provided to the participants. These uniforms are to be worn at the training site only. Participants need to provide their own footwear.

Positions and possible duties

J-1 interns/trainees must speak advanced English and have good people skills. Participants will be learning all aspects of the restaurant, would be in the same area for the busiest months of the year but also trained in other areas during the shoulder seasons.

5 available position at $8 per hour Food & Beverage (Female)

J-1 Internship/training Opportunities

A Fast Food Restaurant has requested international applicants for 2010 to assist them as interns and trainees. Below is an outline of the experience the applicants can expect.

Program Contents

Visa Preparation: Applicants will prepare the documents needed for the acquisition of J-1 visa.

Insurance: Health insurance will be included as part of the program.

Transportation to and from Airport: Host will assist with transportation.

Transportation to and from site: Host will assist with transportation.

Housing: Host will assist with housing.

The cost will be $55.00 per week approximately. (Shared Room)

The cost will be $70.00 per week approximately. (Individual Room)

Program Information

Number of Positions Available: 4

Length: approximately 12 months.

Program Dates: Positions available from approximately March 15, 2010 through March 15, 2011

Pay Rate: $7.25 per hour (less State and Federal taxes and any other required deductions).

Number of Hours per Week:

Schedule: Participants will be having different shifts. Many shifts will be approximately 8 hours. Shifts and schedules may change during the course of the program.

Uniforms: Uniforms are provided to the participants. These uniforms are to be worn at the training site only. Participants need to provide their own footwear.

Positions and possible duties

J-1 interns/trainees must speak advanced English and have good people skills. Participants will be learning all aspects of the restaurant, would be in the same area for the busiest months of the year but also trained in other areas during the shoulder seasons.

- | | | | |
|---|-------------------------------|----------|--------------------------|
| 2 | available positions at $7.25 | per hour | Food & Beverage (Male) |
| 2 | available positions at $7.25 | per hour | Food & Beverage (Female) |